The musical score is written for brass instruments and is divided into several sections:

- Intro: The first section, starting with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). It features a rhythmic melody with eighth and sixteenth notes.
- Couplet: The second section, continuing the melody and adding harmonic accompaniment.
- Interlude: A short section with a melodic line.
- Couplet: A second section of the main melody.
- Refrain: A section with a distinct melodic phrase.
- Ragga: A section characterized by a more complex, syncopated rhythmic pattern.
- Interlude: Another short melodic section.
- Couplet: A third section of the main melody.
- Pré-refrain: A section leading into the final refrain.
- Refrain: The final melodic phrase of the piece.
- Finish: The concluding section of the score.

The score uses standard musical notation, including treble clefs, a key signature of one sharp, and various rhythmic values such as eighth, sixteenth, and quarter notes. Bar lines and repeat signs are used to structure the piece.
